ASTAHG aims at improving the governance capacities of regional Active and Healthy Ageing (AHA) policies and easing the transferring of innovation and initiatives within the Alpine Space. ASTAHG will establish a transnational Governance Board of AHA for the coordination and assessment of regional policies and publish a portfolio of good practices and innovations as well as a specific framework for planning new policies and initiatives in AHA. 9 partners and 20 observers collaborate to increase the innovation level for AHA in the Alpine Space and contribute to the territorial development.
